

THE TIMES OF INDIA, NEW DELHI / NOIDA / GHAZIABAD
MONDAY, JANUARY 23, 2017

Lotus Valley International School, Noida hosted the annual cultural fiesta for junior classes. School principal Dr. Ruchi Seth welcomed the gathering. The theme for classes I and II 'Udaan-An Ode To Young Lotusians' showcased the freedom of our young blossoms to dream and soar to unprecedented heights. The show portrayed how Lotus Valley is committed to fostering the holistic development of the children. True to its theme 'Sadbhav' the programme for classes III and IV

Lotus Valley International School, Noida

aimed at aesthetically showcasing the spirit of solidarity, humanity, unity and brotherhood. Every heart present swelled up with pride to see the students transcend all barriers and boundaries and perform gracefully to a melange of Indian and Western beats, beautifully synchronized and coordinated.