

THE TIMES OF INDIA, NEW DELHI / NOIDA / GHAZIABAD
FRIDAY, JANUARY 6, 2017

Lotus Valley International School, Noida hosted its first Model United Nations Conference 'Acta Non Verba.' The opening ceremony commenced with a song 'Man in the Mirror.' School principal Dr Ruchi Seth spoke about the importance of Model United Nations and the role of students in building a harmonious society. Subsequently, the students enthralled the audience with a traditional dance performance - an amalgamation of three classical dances- Odissi, Bharatnatyam and Kathak. The Secretary General, Aditya Bhamu welcomed all delegates and guests in addition to introducing the committee chairpersons. The conference was declared open by chief guest Ashok Pandey, Principal of Ahlcon International School, Delhi. After the opening ceremony, the MUN moved on to the proceedings of the committees with delegates who had been preparing for the MUN with enthusiasm. The delegates gained in depth insight into the functioning of the United Nations and dynamics of international relations. With over 12 schools participating in the conference from Delhi/NCR, the first day of the conference saw a wide variety of motions being raised for debates. The closing note was delivered by Dr Vikram Dutt, Professor and Mentor in the Dept. of Journalism and Mass Communication at Delhi Metropolitan Education. The two days conference culminated with the prize distribution ceremony wherein delegates were recognised for their exemplary performance in different committees. DPS Indirapuram won the Best School Delegation trophy for the event.

Lotus Valley International School, Noida