NEW DELHI: Kindergarten students of Lotus Valley International School, Noida, celebrated Graduation Day with pomp and show.

Children have a unique relationship with their teachers and this bond has a positive impact on their lives. To mark this special bond between teachers and students and to cherish the years spent with each other, Graduation Day was celebrated in the school. The programme began with the pre-primary incharge, Anushree Datta welcoming parents on behalf of the school management and staff, which was followed by dances.

The lotus buds sang the 'Graduation Song' with zest and ended the show with a foot-tapping Zumba dance. The performance by the young artists left the audience spellbound.

The event was attended by vice chairpersons, Sureena Uppal and Jaspreet Kaur. In her address, principal Dr Ruchi Seth congratulated the parents on the achievement of their wards.

Parents were happy as students graduated from pre-primary into formal school.
