

THE TIMES OF INDIA, NEW DELHI / NOIDA / GHAZIABAD
THURSDAY, MAY 18, 2017

School Buzz

Lotus Valley International School, Noida added another feather to its cap by successfully organising an inter-school art & craft competition 'The Fifth Dimension - Creativity & Beyond.' This creative venture designed for classes I - XII saw enthusiastic participation from several schools all over Delhi and NCR. The budding artists showcased their talent by participating in activities like origami, card making, cartoon making, clay modelling,

Lotus Valley International School, Noida jewellery designing, painting, constructive art, installation art, paper collage etc. Their creative fervour gripped all participants and the art rooms were resplendent with bright, innovative and eye-catching displays. The judges, Amita Sachdeva, a national awardee and Ashok Bhowmick, a renowned painter of the Bengal School of Art, were impressed by the artistic attempts and congratulated the budding artists for their excellent displays. School principal Dr Ruchi Seth motivated the children to further their artistic skills and to make art an integral part of their lives.